SOUTH AMERICA BOUND

We are heading to a new continent in April - South America! We will be training pastors and leaders on the Exponential Harvest, One Minute Witness and Discipleship in Brazil and Colombia!

I will be leading the team from April 14-30th conducting conferences in Sao Paulo, Minas Gerais, Manaus, Brazil (Amazon River) and then onto Colombia.

Please pray for our travels, our health and safety

- Our travels will be an adventure for sure! Many of the roads and bridges on the way to Minas Gerais have been washed away due to flooding so instead of a 4 hour drive on dirt roads it will be 6 hours!
- Then we are taking a 15 hour boat ride (each way) to an island in the Amazon River where we will be training over 200 pastors/leaders who are reaching the indigenes people of the Amazon! Many of the villages/tribes have not seen a "white person" or have heard the name Jesus!

Our boat ride!

It's our JUNGLE CRUISE!

GCA Trip to Colombia

After our travels in Brazil, we split up into teaching teams. Team Chris will be heading to Barranquilla which is located near the Caribbean Sea. Then my team will travel to Medellín before returning home on April 30th.

One of the blessings I get to enjoy in this ministry besides sharing about Jesus, is the joy of seeing people I have done ministry with as their youth minister or pastor!

In Medellín, I will be visiting a ministry, Into The Light International who is helping aged-out orphans develop employment skills, social skills and learning more about Jesus. The founder Rani Payne, her adult children, along with young adults from Crossroads Impact Church are on staff there! So looking forward to seeing them again and how their ministry is reaching the youth in Medellín.

Also, this trip has brought together missionaries that Laurie and I have supported and who helped me with my youth ministry in Montrose, Colorado. Andrew Stringer has been such a help in putting together the conference in Medellín.

I look forward to sharing photos, videos and stories about this adventure for the Kingdom!
